

Klondike Outing Review, Feb. 10 to 12, 2012:

During Klondike this year I had an amazing time. Even though we didn't come out on top, we still had fun and tried which made my first outing the best experience I had in scouting so far. The most amazing time was playing Risk with Chris and Pat and having my Moops demolished. Klondike was the best outing a scout could go on.